THE RELATIONSHIP TRAINING INSTITUTE PRESENTS

The STOP Program: Understanding & Treating Intimate Partner Violence in the 21st Century

April 19-21 & 27-28, 2018

Selected workshop days may be attended separately!
Any single day will fulfill the CA requirements for mental health professional licensure.

Join Us for the 20th Anniversary of The STOP Program Training!

The STOP Program training model has been acclaimed internationally for outstanding integration of contemporary theory, research, and practice in the complex and quickly-changing world of DV intervention. This five day workshop provides a complete overview of the field of domestic violence, with specific training in group treatment and intervention.

Day One – Thursday, April 19: BEHIND THE SCENES

Offers a comprehensive view of the origins of domestic violence and about the typologies of male batterers.

Day Two – Friday, April 20: NUTS & BOLTS

Outlines The STOP Program, a newly updated group treatment program that integrates self psychological treatment interventions with education about the politics of abuse and comprehensive skills training.

Day Three – Saturday, April 21: VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

An inside look at the experience of DV victims, including special training on male victims and kids who witness DV.

Day Four – Friday, April 27: THE BIG PICTURE

Morning Session:

SUBSTANCE ABUSE &
RELATIONSHIP ABUSE

The latest research on the relationship between substance abuse and domestic violence—and what to do about it.

Afternoon Session:

COORDINATED COMMUNITY RESPONSE

Selected guest faculty from throughout the San Diego legal and law enforcement community.

Day Five – Saturday, April 28: DIVERSITY ISSUES

Overview of DV and diversity issues, and generating interventions well-matched for minority culture offenders and victims.
